

Coordinator of Western Connections and Community Events with Ucross High Plains Stewardship

Job Listing: # 36519

UCROSS - Western Connections and Community Coordinator- YSE

Description

We are seeking two students (with at least two years remaining at Yale) to join our team in planning and implementing events for the Western Connections and Community event series offered by Ucross High Plains Stewardship Initiative.

This series hosts about 1-2 events per month during September-May. We are seeking two students to collaborate with Michelle Downey (Ucross director) and student coordinators Alaina Geibig, Li Murphy, and Taylor Furr to organize and coordinate these events to build connections and community among students, staff, and faculty at Yale that are interested in the western United States. These events are open to all student levels and disciplines. By bringing people together that are interested in West we can create community to foster interdisciplinary research, collaboration, and well-being.

Events in the past have included breakfasts, happy hour, trivia, education seminars and workshops, career chat, etc.

Qualifications Needed

- Attention to detail
- Communication skills
- Ability to work collaboratively on a team
- Willingness to lead event planning and execution

Commitment: 5-10 hours/week during September 10, 2025- May 8, 2026

Pay Rate: $17.50/hour

How to Apply:

Apply using the central Yale Student Employment application systems (yalestudentjobs.org) and search for job listing # 36519

- You will be asked to upload your resume and a statement of interest.
- In your statement of interest, we would like to learn more about 1) why you are interested in this opportunity and 2) what makes you a good fit for this role.